Leave orders at the counting room.

Notice to Fishermen and Others on the Columbia River.

My youngest son, four years old, blue eyes, light hair and complexion, fell from the wharf at Clifton on Saturday evening, July 24th, 1881. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of his body. VICTOR COOK, Clifton, Oregon, July 10, 1881.

—Mr. L. A. Loomis returned last evening.
—Mr. A. Knapp Jr., of Knappa, is in the city.

—Steamer day. State to arrive; Oregon to sail.

—There is a latin skollar at Astoria who signs himself Critical Poet.

—The Columbia arrived at San Francisco from Astoria on Sunday.

—Rev. P. S. Knight and wife, of Salem, are in the city, stopping at the Occident.

—There is but one vessel in port. The Glenperis, loading salmon at Flavel dock.

—The barkentine Portland, from Knappa, arrived at San Francisco on Sunday.

—The W. H. Besse made a good trip, arriving at Port Townsend on Monday from this port.

—Mr. Henry Ackerman, the most liberal dealer in Dollar Store Stock on the Pacific coast, is at the Occident.

—The passenger list is so bungled up that we have got to wait till the State arrives to see who is on board.

—Capt. Geo. C. Flavel had Tillie W. and mate hitched to a double buggy yesterday. They make a fine appearance.

—Yesterday the Shubrick changed the black-spar buoy in the swash channel, to a second-class can buoy, designated No. 3.

—Mrs. Hilsley is again able to be about, after a severe illness. Her brother, Mr. A. D. Birnie, returned to Cathlamet yesterday.

—Mrs. Annie Parabis died at St. Mary's hospital yesterday, of heart disease; aged 50. She will be buried from the hospital to-day at 2 o'clock p. m.

—Mr. G. W. Coffinbury, justice of the peace at Skipanon is negotiating for the transfer of his farm on Clatsop plains, and the purchase of city property in Astoria.

—The steam tug Fearless is still at Grays harbor. The Sol. Thomas has gone to Coos bay. The Brenham and Columbia are at the cape in the bar service, and the Astoria is employed as a tender to the rock.

—Hon. Sidney Dell, one of the leading attorneys of the Pacific Northwest, and a good friend of Astoria, is in the city attending to legal business in connection with the coming term of the Circuit court for Clatsop county.

—If the music-loving people of Astoria desire it, the Lester Opera company will visit Astoria and give us one or two of the best operas, to be selected by the subscribers to the tickets. Call upon Carl Adler for full particulars.

—We positively and emphatically deny all statements that there are any small-pox in Astoria, or have been any cases, beyond the one of July 4th, then taken care of immediately, sent to the pest house, and since discharged cured.

—The Editor of THE ASTORIAN has been promoted to the responsible position of Second Assistant Engineer of the Astoria Fire Department. This honor is conferred upon him in consequence of his well-known ability, his quickness to be on the grounds at every alarm, and the nimbleness with which he gets to the top of a ladder. He graciously accepts the office, but will continue the publication of THE ASTORIAN as before, and as the office will give him an insight into the workings of fire department matters, which no other editor on the Pacific coast enjoys, now is the time to subscribe for THE DAILY and WEEKLY ASTORIAN, and keep up with the times.

St. Mary's Hospital.
Mr. Geo. Hills variety company are to give their benefit this afternoon. This is the second benefit given by this company for the same purpose, and it is certainly creditable to them. The programme is a splendid one and has been carefully rehearsed. No pains will be spared, and every effort will be made to make this entertainment a pleasant one for all who attend. Any who desire to reserve seats can do so by applying to Mr. Dement at his drug store. The tickets are only fifty cents, and no one can spend that amount of money more profitably. Let everybody go and make it a rousing benefit.

Board of Delegates.
The meeting came to order in the hall of Astoria Engine company No. 1, at 7:30 p. m., July 25th, with President Trenchard in the chair. Absent—Hawes, Tuttle, Crosby.
Minutes of previous meeting were read and approved.
Committee on spring hammer for alarm bell were allowed one month to report.

Communication from No. 1, notifying election of Wm. Cartwright and Oscar Wilson, and expulsion of Jos. Thompson and Peter Ries; and from No. 2, notifying election of James McGill, was referred to committee on certificates.

All persons elected in the several companies within sixty and thirty days were granted certificates.

Judges of election were appointed, as viz: W. W. Parker, No. 1; P. Runey, No. 2; and F. J. Taylor, No. 3.

The first and second assistant chief engineers having failed to perform their duties, the officers were declared vacant, and the board proceeded to fill their places for the unexpired time with E. R. Hawes, as first, and D. C. Ireland as second assistants.

The secretary was instructed to send for fifty blank certificates C. O. D. E. R. Hawes resigned as delegate to the board from No. 2.

On motion it was ordered that the coming election be held at the house of Astoria engine company No. 1.

Board adjourned.

Secretary Astoria Fire Department.

—The common council adjourned last night until Saturday evening at eight o'clock, for want of a quorum.

—A carp pound in Georgia contains a million fish to the acre. A reporter on the Griffin News counted them.

—The photographer who took Guiteau's picture the other day, ought to have pointed a self-cocking, double-barrel camera at him, loaded with old iron.

—It is very hot in The Dalles; almost as hot as St. Louis, if we can believe thermometrical reading. But St. Louis has no such winds as they of The Dalles enjoy.

—A man on Tillamook bay who got up early one day to milk his cows, and which act is not satisfactorily explained, reports to the Oregonian that he saw a ship burn at sea that morning. The report is not confirmed.

—Two men have built a good wagon road from Fort Clatsop to the plains, and here a whole city full can't build a road around Smith point. There has been more time wasted talking about building a road from Knappa to the head of Shoalwater bay, than would have built the road, if properly applied.

—The Fin-Back greets us: "THE ASTORIAN, daily and weekly, is on our table. They are both very neatly-printed and nicely-arranged papers, besides being full of news. Brother Ireland, we will be happy to exchange." Behold how pleasant it is for us to place the Fin-Back Daily on our Seattle list.

—The record of sheriff's emolument returns for the county of Clatsop for six months, ending June 30, 1881, is as follows:

Fees earned from county in Circuit court.....$110.25
